

Buffalo Mountain Food Coop

Code of Conduct

Buffalo Mountain Food Coop (BMFC) affirms the right of all to shop and work in an environment free from violence, threats or intimidation, verbal abuse, harassment (sexual or otherwise), unreasonable interference, or any criminal conduct.

All who work at, shop in or visit BMFC are expected to refrain from such inappropriate conduct while on BMFC premises, and to cease such behavior when requested to do so by BMFC staff or other affected parties. Failure to do so may result in removal from the stores, suspension of the right of entry and revocation of membership by Board decision and authority. Affected parties have the right to an appeal to Board.

The Management is hereby authorized and directed to ensure that standards of conduct in accordance with the above are equitably enforced at BMFC's facilities.
