

Buffalo Mountain Food Coop is a not-for-profit corporation owned by its members, collectively managed by a paid staff and a member-elected board of directors. We follow the cooperative principles of:

- ☞ open and voluntary membership, ☞ democratic member control,
- ☞ education of ourselves and the community, ☞ work for the sustainable development of our greater community ☞ support of other co-operatives and ☞ reinvestment of surplus to members and community

The mission of the Buffalo Mountain Food Cooperative is:

- ☞ To develop within its area of influence a community-owned and operated, health-oriented, thriving enterprise;
- ☞ To continually educate the community as a whole in regard to food politics, health issues, and our social-cultural activities;
- ☞ To demonstrate alternative approaches to structuring our work environment so that it is more decent and compassionate;
 - ☞ To offer healthy, pro-active choices;
- ☞ To open our doors to, and develop all aspects of, our community.

We provide food for all people, not for profit.
